

Privacy Policy

Last updated June 12, 2024

Introduction

Welcome to EclipseCard, Inc. ("Eclipse", "We", "Our", "Us"). Your privacy is important to us. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and share information about you when you use our mobile app, Eclipse. By using our app, you agree to the terms of this Privacy Policy.

Information Collection

We collect information to provide and improve our services. The types of information we collect include:

- Location Data: We collect real-time location data to optimize credit card usage and recommendations. We only store the categories of merchants you recently shop at, and the name of the merchant. We do not otherwise store data of addresses or your geolocation.
- Device Information: We collect information about the device you use to access our app, including the type of device and operating system.
- User Data: This includes your name, email address, and any other information you provide when you register or update your profile.
- Usage Data: We collect information about your activity on the app such as when you click on external links to recommended credit cards.
- Credit Card Data: We collect mask digits (last four digits) that you provide yourself for your own identification purposes. The mask digits are not sensitive information and can be changed in the Eclipse app at your will, with no effect otherwise. In addition, we also collect any customized features you add to your credit card item, such as notes, or different point values.

Use of Information

We use information we collect to:

- Optimize and recommend credit cards based on location
- Improve and personalize your experience in our app
- Communicate to you with updates, promotions, and other information related to our services
- Analyze usage patterns to improve our app's functionalities and performance

Sharing of Information

We may share your information in the following circumstances:

- Legal Requirements: We may disclose your information if required to do so by law or in response to valid requests by public authorities.
- Business Transfers: In the event of a merger, acquisition, or sale of all or a portion of our assets, your information may be transferred as part of that transaction.

Data Security

We take the security of your data seriously and implement various measures to protect it, including:

- Encryption: We use encryption to protect sensitive data during transmission.
- Secure Servers: Our data is stored on secure servers with restricted access.
- Security Protocols: We employ security protocols to safeguard your information from unauthorized access, disclosure, or misuse.

User Rights

You have the following rights regarding your data:

- Access: You can request access to the personal data we hold about you.
- Correction: You can request that we correct any inaccuracies in your personal data.
- Deletion: You can request that we delete your personal data, subject to certain legal restrictions.
- Data Portability: You can request a copy of your data in a structured, commonly used, and machine-readable format.

To exercise these rights, please contact us at the email address provided below under Contact Information.

Changes of Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. If we make significant changes, we will notify you through the app or by email. Your continued use of the app after any changes indicates your acceptance of the updated Privacy Policy.
